

Authors in this Issue

FREDRIK CHR. BRØGGER, educated at the University of Oslo, the University of California at Los Angeles, and the University of Bergen (cand.philol. 1973). Lecturer of American Studies at the University of Tromsø (since 1974); currently a research fellow through a grant from the Norwegian Research Council of the Humanities (1981–83). Has published articles on American Studies; currently at work on a socio-cultural study of the American literature of the 1920s.

MATTI I. SAVOLAINEN has M.A. and L.Phil. (1977) degrees from the University of Tampere, where he is Assistant of General Literature. He studied at Harvard University 1977–78 and has published several articles on literary studies. Savolainen is currently at work on a dissertation on William Faulkner.

RAOUL GRANQUIST has a M.A. degree from Åbo Akademi and a Ph.D. from Uppsala University (1975). He has been a lecturer at the University of Luleå and Umeå, and is now a research fellow at the latter institution. Granquist has published The Reputation of John Donne 1779–1873 (1975) and is currently doing research in West African Literature.

SEIKKO ESKOLA has his Ph.D. from the University of Helsinki (1965). He was visiting scholar at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy 1967–68 and has been assoc.prof. of history at the University of Tampere since 1974. Eskola served as member of the Finnish delegation to the U.N. General Assembly in 1977 and the U.N. Special Session for Disarmament in 1978. He has published The Finnish Issue and the Swedish Opinion (1965) and The U.S. Press and the Finnish Crisis, (1974) – both in Finnish with an English summary – and edits Kanava.