Changes in the program may still have to be made. The date (27—29 April, 1972) is definite. All those seriously interested in American Studies will be welcome to attend the lectures and to participate in the discussions. Upon request they shall receive an invitation from the Association through its chairman: A. N. J. den Hollander, 46 Watteaustraat, Amsterdam, which invitation will serve as proof of registration. Please, present it April 27 at the Villa Rigot. A definite and more detailed program of the conference together with information about hotels etc. will be mailed to those applying for an invitation. There will be no registration fee. Advanced students can receive an invitation upon recommendation of one of their professors. The Association is not in a position to reimburse travel costs; those who will attend should make their own hotel arrangements in Geneva.
